

IMPORTANT RESULTS FOR THE TRANSPORT DIVISION OF FRIGERIO GROUP THAT IN 2024 CELEBRATES 75 YEARS OF ACTIVITY

Milan, 11 April 2024 - The Transport Division of the Frigerio Group celebrates its 75th anniversary in 2024. Founded in 1949, after the war, dealing with passenger transport, is the parent company from which it originated all the history of the company, now a reference group in travel with a 360° service offer.

"The strengths of the Transport Division have always distinguished our service: high quality standards, safety for passengers and workers, sustainability with a low environmental impact fleet" comments Carlo Frigerio, Mobility Director "Without forgetting the fundamental values of reliability, flexibility, competence and courtesy. The recently concluded 2023 was an important year full of satisfaction, which saw the entry of 12 new generation vehicles, a fundamental step to keep our car fleet always up to date. I am convinced that sustainable mobility is increasingly a civic necessity and need, and we have committed ourselves to this front with substantial investments."

2023 is also an important year for the increase in turnover, which has seen significant growth. Frigerio Trasporti has increased its customer portfolio and consolidated new strategic partnerships, including the renewal of the agreement with AC Milan and a new collaboration with FIGC. The latter will allow Frigerio Trasporti to carry the men's and women's national football teams, thus strengthening the commitment in the sports sector already strong for the years of collaboration with Cantù Basketball.

Carlo Frigerio concludes with a look at the future, sharing his vision and enthusiasm for the company's future, highlighting its constant commitment to excellence and innovation in the transport sector "I love challenges and I am confident that we will be able to maintain positive growth in 2024 as well".
