

WALKING TOUR

Milan

ITALIAN TREASURES

[Throughout downtown Milan with Vittorio Sgarbi]

One of the most important personalities of the Italian critics will take you through this Walking Tour dedicated to the works of art in Milan. An accurate selection, ranging from the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie (next to da Vinci's Last Supper) to the Pinacoteca (Art Gallery) in Brera, passing by the amazing perspectives of Santa Maria at San Satiro, the priceless collection of the Pinacoteca Ambrosiana and the vertiginous spires of the Milan Cathedral.

ITALIAN TREASURES

DISCUSSED TOPICS
Art and culture

WALKING TOUR AREA
Downtown Milan

HOW TO PARTECIPARE
Free download OpenCITY App and buy the Walking Tour – activated through the code you will receive. Follow the virtual expert taking you to the discovery of the most beautiful and interesting places in the city. You will manage all the routes autonomously, having the chance to interrupt them or listen to them repeatedly. Even at home.

LENGTH OF THE ROUTE 1 day on foot and by public means of transport

SUPPORTED DEVICE Starting from IOS 10 and from Android 5

LANGUAGES OF THE WALKING TOUR Italian and English

RECOMMENDED FOR Everyone
There might be some architectural barriers: we do not recommend Walking Tours to people with severe disabilities, unless they are accompanied

